

Why is there fighting in the Middle East? Have Israel and her neighbors ever been at peace?

To find out, bring your students to a dramatic first person account:

STANDING WITH THE ENEMY: A CAMP DAVID MEMOIR

Join story teller Audrey Galex to unwind the complexities of the modern Middle East Crisis and understand the importance of the 1978 Camp David Accords. This living memoir demonstrates the courage, compassion and peace making efforts of three Nobel Prize laureates: Anwar Sadat, Menachem Begin, and Jimmy Carter. Free with your admission to the museum on these dates

- Tuesday, September 12, 10 AM and 11 AM
- Wednesday, September 27, 10 AM and 11 AM
- Thursday, October 12, 11 AM and 12 PM
- Friday, October 27, 11 AM and 12:00 PM

Duration: 15 minutes

Location: Jimmy Carter Library & Museum, 441 Freedom Parkway, Atlanta, GA 30307

Can be added onto your museum tour. Please request inclusion of this program with our tour coordinator at the time of booking. Be sure to indicate your desired date/time, as well as your group headcount.

For more information, call 404-865-7114